

Spectacle Odyssée Island fashion show

The Magdalen Island fashion event of the year will be held on Tuesday, March 10, at the Civic Center in Grindstone. This spring's fashion show will not only display the latest in fashion, but will also have a unique statement by Odette Leblanc.

Ms. Leblanc is a designer and the creator of a line of seal skin clothing, leather and suede, made only in Quebec by the staff of Salon Nadeau, and distributed by a well known Madelinot, Gérard Nadeau.

The Boutique Coup d'oeil, owned by Robert Aucoin will present groups of spring clothing to give you a preview of what you could be wearing.

The Boutique au P'tit Pichou and Studio 84 will be displaying their latest fashions in shoes.

The sound and lighting systems will be provided by Dany Gaudet, the decor and design will be realized by Marcel Forest.

For your entertainment, Raymond Henry will be the Master of Ceremonies. He will be accompanied by Jean-Marc Bénard and Marjolaine Arseneau. This trio will provide excellent entertainment while models present the latest in fashion.

The First

Informer

"English Media for Madelinots"

April 1st, 1994